

NEUTRAL SHIP BOUND FOR U.S. SUNK BY U-BOAT

Norwegian Steamer is Victim of German Submarine in Mid-Ocean

AN ATLANTIC PORT, July 8.—Another neutral ship, the Norwegian steamer Augvald, 2098 tons, bound from a French port for Baltimore has fallen a victim of a German submarine. A trans-Atlantic liner in port to-day brought the news of the sinking of the Augvald in mid-ocean on June 23 and its landed crew members of the crew of 27 men. Three of the crew were drowned and the remaining thirteen are unaccounted for.

The rescued men were picked up by the liner after having drifted helplessly for eleven days subsisting most of time on seaweed and rainwater wrung from their clothing or caught in their caps. They were in an exhausted condition when picked up but by careful nursing on board the liner they had fairly recovered when they reached here.

According to members of the crew who told their story in fragments over the side of the liner, when she docked at sea wolf adopted the same methods as used by the U-boats in their operations off the Atlantic coast. The steamer was stopped by shell fire, the crew ordered into two boats, and the ship then sunk with bombs.

Captain Ege of the Augvald left the ship with twelve men in his boat and it became separated from the other life-boat containing fourteen of the crew. For two days the latter boat drifted about and was then upset in a storm. Three of the men were swept away and the others managed to drift to the shore where they lost all their food and fresh water and even their oars were gone.

Drifting helplessly the men began to suffer for want of food and water. Seaweed was eagerly snatched up and chewed and every device they could think of was resorted to, to catch rain water. There was a succession of rain storms and the men almost continually drenched. Day after day went by and finally on July 4 the rescue ship came over the horizon and the exhausted and starving men were soon safely on the deck of the liner and given every comfort.

Simultaneously with the arrival of the submarined crew warnings were sent out today that hostile U-boats may be encountered between latitudes 35 and 45 north. On July 5, an enemy submarine was reported in latitude 42.32 north, longitude 43.50 west.

COLUMBIA DEATH LIST REACHES 82

PEORIA, Ill., July 8.—With the recovery of more bodies this afternoon the death list of the Steamer Columbia disaster was increased to eighty-two. Seventeen persons are still officially reported missing.

The first of the bodies floating in the river was found today. A boatman took from the surface of the water near West Point, one half mile from the scene of the tragedy the body of Thomas Hancock, a grocer of Pekin. Sufficient time has elapsed for other bodies to arise to the surface of the river and rescuers believe that most of the missing will be found floating in the river.

The United States Steamer Lancaster today lifted each week from the lance floor and the body of the four year old child of John Grewy of Kingston Mines was recovered. Grewy's wife and another child—his entire family—perished in the disaster.

KERENSKY GIVES VIEWS OF "JAP" INTERVENTION

PARIS, July 8.—Ex-Premier Kerensky of Russia, in an interview, printed in the Excelsior today, gives his opinion on the subject of Japanese intervention in Russia more definitely than heretofore. After attempting to describe the chaos in Russia Kerensky said:

"It is time, once for all, to understand our position. We have no prejudice against the Japanese people. They always have been loyal, even during our struggle in Manchuria, before the war and during the war, but that is not the question."

"It is the question once more of not playing the game of the Bolsheviks and their German protectors by giving them the opportunity of exploiting anew the ignorance of the Russian masses in making them believe the Japanese are coming to make war on Russia. Has not Trotsky said that between German and Japanese occupation he would prefer the Germans?"

TO REPORT ON TELEGRAPH RESOLUTION.

Washington, July 8.—The senate interstate commerce committee today decided to report immediately without holding hearings the house resolution authorizing the president to take over telegraph, telephone and cable and radio systems during the war.

GENERAL PERSHING ISSUES COMMUNIQUE

With Exception of a Few Patrol Engagements and the Usual Artillery Duels There is Little of News Regarding Actual Combat.

Washington, July 8.—Section B of General Pershing's communiqué of July 6, which had been relayed was made public today by the war department. It follows:

"Headquarters American Expeditionary Forces, July 6, 1918.

"Section B. (Paragraph omitted here due to errors in transmission, now being corrected): around Belleau Wood, Bois Bonnes, Ploasance, La Tarte, Givry, Epau and other centers of activity in the German rear areas horsemen, cyclists, and pedestrians and all kinds of vehicles circulated continuously in very considerable numbers. During the night fires occurred in the region of Etrepvilly and Chateau Belleau. The fire in the latter region is supposed to have resulted from the success of our artillery in finding one of the enemy's ammunition dumps. Our snipers continued to pick off the enemy in notable fashion.

"The Capture of Prisoners. "Concerning the capture of German prisoners of our patrol north of Vaux during the afternoon of July 4 the following particulars are now available:

"Our patrol of three men crawled to a house in Bois des Roches at 2 o'clock as stated in the cable of July 5. One man was posted as sentry while a corporal and the other man entered the house. They found in the house one man belonging to a German outpost, sent for observation and to prepare a position for a machine gun. A second German was found hiding in the house. The corporal in command of our party sent back one of his men to carry out a message that was bringing in prisoners and asking for machine gun protection. The prisoners were brought back in safety in spite of German snipers who fired continually.

"The Marne region occupied by our troops was unusually quiet from 8 o'clock in the evening of July 4, all activity decreasing except the continuous circulation of troops and traffic which began on the preceding day. The enemy artillery fire which consisted of harassing, destructive and registration fire with slight use of shrapnel was very light. An enemy patrol of about ten men was seen on the bank of the Marne. Our automatic weapons were on them, but the result is unknown. The enemy machine guns were intermittently active and our troops seem to have located another machine gun position. The enemy's airplane and balloon activity was slight. The number of flares has died but brilliant rockets and flares of different colors continue to light up the region at night.

"In Picardy there was little activity on July 2 to July 3, noon to noon. The artillery fire from the enemy's batteries was concentrated on our front lines at about midnight, the shells being of medium caliber. On our positions north of Cantigny he placed a barrage in reply to our fire from that vicinity. Shells of varying calibre also fell in the vicinity of Bos de Gland during the night. The usual machine gun fire was directed on our lines and on Cantigny. One of our patrolling parties examined the enemy wire and enemy trench at one point.

"Observations Balloons. "Enemy observation balloons were up. The enemy on discovering one of our patrolling parties, threw up rockets which brought a barrage from our batteries followed by a counter barrage from the batteries of the enemy. During the artillery fighting, red and orange rockets were sent up. The circulation in the enemy's rear areas late in the day was distinctly abnormal in the vicinity of Montdidier, Fontaine and other points where the usual number of torpedoes, wagons and motors were observed.

"In the Mulhouse sector July 2, 3 and 4 were all uneventful days. The German artillery used an average number of shells on July 2 and 3 and an exceptionally small number on July 4. On July 3 there was a single concentration on our positions in the vicinity of Baischwiller. The German artillery fire was very light. The enemy's forces showed little activity on July 2, less on July 3 and none whatever on July 4. Little circulation was observed in the enemy's rear and his working parties did nothing notable except to cut and carry away hay from the vicinity of their first line trenches during the night. On July 3, a hostile patrol, discovered in front of our trenches, was driven off by infantry fire.

"In the Lorraine sector the days of July 2 and July 3 were uneventful. The artillery fire of the enemy was very light in caliber and amount and scattered both as to origin and objective. The enemy's machine gun and rifle fire was more active than usual, occasioned in part, no doubt by the unusual activity of our own patrols.

"The German air forces were moderately active, but were held in check by heavy bombardment from our antiaircraft batteries. In the enemy's rear area there was the usual circulation of troops and traffic movement. Our patrolling parties were successful in their observation work.

"In the Woerthe region on July 2 and July 3, there was quiet except for heavy artillery fire on each of our sub-sectors where shells of medium and small calibre were used together with

FRENCH TROOPS MAKE ADVANCE NEAR LONGPONT

Occupy Important Positions and Take 347 Prisoners

PARIS, July 8.—In an attack today northwest of Longpont, French troops advanced about two thirds of a mile along a front of nearly two miles, occupying important positions and capturing 347 prisoners, according to the war office announcement tonight.

The text of the statement reads:

"South of the Aisne our troops this morning attacked enemy positions in the outskirts of Retz Forest. In the region northwest of Longpont, on a crest of about three kilometers we advanced 1200 meters, occupying Chavigny farm and the ridges north and south of it. Thirty-two unaccounted prisoners were taken up to the present number 347, including four officers.

"Aviation: On July 6 and 7, fourteen enemy airplanes were brought down or put out of action. Two captive balloons were set afire. Our bombing machines dropped twenty-eight tons of projectiles in the course of their expeditions at night in the neighborhood of Fismes, Hirson, Fere-en-Tardenois and Amagne Lucury."

BERLIN, July 8.—(Via London)—The official report from headquarters this evening says: "Partial attacks by the British on both sides of LaBasse canal failed with heavy losses."

LONDON, July 8.—Beyond local encounters in which the British have captured a few prisoners there is nothing of interest to report according to Field Marshal Haig's report from headquarters in France tonight.

VIENNA, July 6.—(Via London)—Italian forces in Albania, the war office announces attacked the Austro-Hungarian forces yesterday on the middle and lower Vovusa river. The Austrian advanced posts were withdrawn from their main positions. The battle on the Northern Italian front east of Mont Pertica, continued yesterday afternoon the announcement says.

BERLIN, July 8.—(Via London)—The official communication general headquarters today says:

"Artillery activity revived in the evening and during the night. It increased intermittently to great strength on both sides of the Lys on Labassee canal and on both sides of the Somme. Lively reconnoitering activity and strong enemy attacks near Merre and south of the Lys broke down.

"West of Chateau Thierry spirited artillery duels continued. Enemy attacks on the Clignon sector and southwest of Rheims were repulsed."

AVIATION OFFICER KILLED BY FALL

BELLEVILLE, Ill., July 8.—Lieutenant Richard H. Fawcett, 22 years old of Alexandria, Va., was instantly killed at 7 o'clock today when he fell from a New York City was slightly injured when an airplane went into a tail spin and fell 600 feet to the ground near here.

Lieutenant Fawcett had been instructing Cox. Following the accident Cox was dazed several minutes, and, regaining consciousness, walked a mile to the nearest telephone and summoned an ambulance. Lieutenant Fawcett was brought to Scott Field where army physicians pronounced him dead. Cox is in the field hospital. Physicians said he would recover.

FOUR OBJECTORS GET 20 YEAR SENTENCES

ROCKFORD, Ill., July 8.—Twenty year sentences in the federal prison at Fort Leavenworth were given to four conscientious objectors to army service by a court martial at Camp Grant today. All are from Chicago. The sentences were read to 150 other objectors now held in the guard house.

John T. Hadonski, one of the objectors when he heard of the heavy sentences begged to be allowed to don a uniform which he had previously refused to wear. His request was granted.

Taken Prisoners. Washington, July 8.—Names of seventy-two additional American soldiers held in prison camps in Germany were announced tonight by the war department. Addresses of two of the men were not given. Of the other seventy, sixty two were from New England states, with 21 from New Haven, Conn.

Also no announcement was made it was assumed that the New England men were taken prisoner during the heavy fighting in which units from that section were engaged early in the present year.

A very little gas. The machine gun and rifle fire of the enemy was frequent in the afternoon and evening. Part of it was apparently the reaction to the operation of one of our patrols.

OVERSEAS CASUALTIES

(By The Associated Press)

WASHINGTON, July 8.—The army casualty list today contained fifty names divided as follows: Killed in action, 6; died of wounds, 13; died of accident and other causes, 2; wounded severely, 29.

The list:

Killed in Action.
Cook Walter L. Crouch, Elm-dale, Kan., and then lost a parliamentary advantage. The resolution was buffeted back and forth between the senate interstate commerce committee and the senate floor in a stormy controversy over the question of holding hearings or hastening senate debate and a vote. No decision was reached on progress made and both factions prepared for renewal of the struggle tomorrow.

Reconvening after defeating the house last Saturday of their summer vacation program, senators almost immediately took up the wire control resolution which leaders planned to expedite the senate's action as requested by President Wilson.

At a special meeting late today the interstate commerce committee with little discussion and by a vote of 4 to 3, decided to dispense with hearings on the resolution and ordered it reported to the senate without amendment or recommendation. The attempt of Chairman Smith to report the resolution caused an uproar of protest in the senate. After a heated debate Senator Hitchcock of Nebraska, presiding temporarily, sustained a point of order that a majority of the committee and not of the committee members present, must order a measure reported, and rejected the report, returning the resolution to the committee.

Senator Smith vigorously protested, declaring his committee had acted in perfect good faith and in accordance with universal senate committee custom.

Administration leaders tonight promised to renew their fight tomorrow to avoid extended committee hearings, while the opposition also promised as insistent a demand for thorough investigation of all questions connected with the legislation.

The administration is expected to throw its support to a resolution introduced by Senator Smith of Georgia, Democratic, proposing to have the resolution returned immediately from the committee to the senate and discharging the committee from further consideration of it. Senator Smith said tonight he could not state whether another meeting of the commerce committee would be called immediately to further consider the resolution.

MIDNIGHT FIRE AT MANCHESTER HARD TO CHECK

Flames Sweep Mathews Stable and Residence and Marsh Barn

A disastrous fire broke out in the city of Manchester at 11 o'clock Monday night and threatened for a time to sweep many of the residences and places of business in the town.

The flames, which were of unknown origin started in the Mathews stable owned and managed by G. W. Mathews, razed that structure and swept on to the Mathews residence 100 feet or so east of the stable. The residence, a frame dwelling, soon caught, and also burned to the ground.

A barn owned by the Marsh heirs situated west of the Mathews lively stable also caught fire and was destroyed. This building was empty and had not been used for some time.

The Mathews stable contained a number of head of horses and all of these were removed to a place of safety. A large quantity of baled hay was stored in the structure and all this, together with harness and other items of value were consumed by the flames.

The Mathews residence was a total loss, burning to the ground. But little of the contents of the dwelling were saved, and an ambulance was called to remove the injured.

When discovered the flames had gained such headway that it was soon apparent that there was little likelihood of saving the lively barn. The efforts of volunteer fire fighters were then directed to the saving of the places of residence and business surrounding, and to keeping the flames under control as nearly as possible. The stable, which is situated about a block west of the square is near many frame buildings and it was feared that if the business houses on the square should catch that much greater difficulty would be encountered in stopping the fire and that it would sweep the west business section of the town.

Much credit is given to the citizens who fought the fire for their prompt action which resulted in controlling the flames.

The Mathews residence was a large two story frame building of 9 or ten rooms and was used as a hotel. Mr. Mathews built the house a number of years ago. He has been in business in Manchester for about 20 years. He did not build the lively stable, buying it shortly before building the residence property.

It is understood that the fire was discovered and the alarm given by Night Watchman William Lawson.

The loss, which is partially covered by insurance, totals about $6000.

Soon after the fire was discovered a call for help was sent to Roadhouse asking that some assistance be sent to aid in checking the advance of the flames. The work of the Manchester fire fighters, however, succeeded in getting the fire under control.

BITTER FIGHT IN SENATE OVER WIRE RESOLUTION

Upper House in Stormy Controversy Over Question of Holding Hearings or Hastening Senate Debate and a Vote.

Washington, July 8.—Efforts of the administration to secure immediate disposal by the senate of the house resolution authorizing the president to take over telegraph, telephone, cable and radio systems during the war, stirred up a bitter fight today in the upper house in which the administration won and then lost a parliamentary advantage. The resolution was buffeted back and forth between the senate interstate commerce committee and the senate floor in a stormy controversy over the question of holding hearings or hastening senate debate and a vote. No decision was reached on progress made and both factions prepared for renewal of the struggle tomorrow.

NEW YORK MAIL HEAD CHARGED WITH PERJURY

Failed to Disclose Relations With Germany in Report

NEW YORK, July 8.—Dr. Edward A. Rumley, vice-president and treasurer of the Mail and Express company, publisher of the New York Evening Mail was arrested here tonight in the office of Attorney General Lewis, charged with perjury in a report to A. Mitchell Palmer, alien property custodian.

The complaint against Dr. Rumley charges that in making a report to the alien property custodian regarding the transaction he failed to disclose his relation with Count von Bernstorff, German ambassador to the United States and Dr. Heinrich F. Albert, Commercial attaché of the German embassy. The warrant was issued by a federal commissioner upon the complaint of Attorney General Lewis who had been conducting an investigation for sometime into the affairs of the Mail.

The attorney general charged that Rumley purchased the stock of the Mail and Express company in June 1915 from Henry L. Stoddard and that in doing so he acted on behalf of the imperial German government.

The attorney general charged that the German government paid to Rumley in several transactions connected with the purchase of the Mail, $1,361,000. The payments, it was alleged, were concealed until their details were discovered by investigators for the department of justice and the New York state attorney general.

This report from Austrian headquarters probably refers to the action mentioned in the French official statement on Sunday night. It was said by the war office that the French and British forces had seized heights in Western Albania and had held them against counter-attacks.

Altho the movement is as yet not fully developed, it may be that a serious offensive operation has been initiated there. Italian naval vessels would be expected to co-operate with the land forces and if the line is pushed back a very great distance a re-location of the enemy lines running over the mountains into Macedonia might be necessary. The fighting north of Avlona has been going on for at least three days, which indicates that it may be more than a mere local action.

Events are moving with rapidity in Russia since the assassination of Count von Mirbach, the German ambassador at Moscow. Rumors of a counter-revolution at Moscow come from various sources but other dispatches say that the uprising has been crushed and several hundred of the revolutionists are under arrest.

Germany's refusal to accept of relegating the Brest-Litovsk peace treaty to the scrap of paper category, for there are indications that German troops may be sent to Moscow in the near future. There are large Teutonic forces within 300 miles of Moscow and it is reported that they are being heavily reinforced. Dispatches say that Emperor William has forbidden the German foreign office to negotiate in any way with Russian emissaries, and the stage appears to be set for a new act in the drama that is being played on what was formerly the eastern theater of the war.

There is a threat of a new offensive against Italy, this time directed from the Treviso front and carried thru by large Austrian forces led by German shock units sent to the sector of the Italian line. Large bodies of German troops are reported concentrating preparatory to launching the blow to revenge the utter defeat of the Austrian attempt to enter the Venetian plains.

AIRCRAFT MEETING SECRET.

Dayton, O., July 8.—Charles E. ## WAR SUMMARY

News of Activities On Various Battle Fronts in Summarized Form By Associated Press.

Continuing their aggressive defense in the face of the impending German offensive along the western battle front the French have once more attacked the enemy southwest of Soissons, launching their blow from the eastern side of the Retz Forest, north of Longpont. The French have advanced over a front of approximately two miles, taking Chavigny farm and the slopes to the north and south of it. Several hundred prisoners were captured by the French in their sudden attack. This assault may be linked up closely with the recent offensive operations at St. Pierre and straightened out an awkward front line front Longpont north as far as the southern limits of Ambleny, a distance of almost eight miles.

Australian troops holding positions astride the Somme river east of Amiens and north of Hamel have swept the Germans back over a front of more than a mile and straightened out an awkward angle held by the Germans since the Australians and Americans carried their lines forward in their spirited attack July 4.

Berlin mentions local attacks in the Clignon sector, which is held by Americans and between the Marne and Rheims.

Italian forces operating on the extreme left wing of the allied line of Albania have struck hard at Austrian positions along the Vovusa (Vojutaz) river, which flows into the Adriatic about twenty miles north of the town of Avlona, one of the most important places in Southern Albania. Vienna admits that the Austrian "advanced posts have been withdrawn to their main positions."

This report from Austrian headquarters probably refers to the action mentioned in the French official statement on Sunday night. It was said by the war office that the French and British forces had seized heights in Western Albania and had held them against counter-attacks.

KEEP NEW U.S. POLICY TOWARD RUSSIA SECRET

Assassination of German Ambassador May Hasten Crisis

WASHINGTON, July 8.—A solute silence was observed among officials and diplomats today concerning the new policy towards Russia to which the United States government has agreed. There were intimations that a statement from the white house was under consideration but it could not be established that this was likely to be forthcoming in the immediate future. The feeling grew that details of the line of operations to be pursued under the plans discussed at the white house conference Saturday had not been worked out and that even when this had been done silence might be expected for a time because of the possibility of jeopardizing the program by permitting official information as to its nature to reach Germany.

The attitude which the entente allies and America should adopt in dealing with Russia had been discussed from so many angles in the press that one official remarked today any announcement that might be made or any actual operations revealing its nature could not come as a surprise to the public.

A conference at the white house during the day lasting an hour between President Wilson and the British ambassador was immediately connected with the Russian situation which it is known is the subject of active exchanges between the entente capitals and Washington. It was assumed that the ambassador called to hear of the conclusions reached Saturday when the president went over the question with the state, war and navy secretaries and chief military and naval officers.

American engineers attached to the railroad commission headed by John F. Stevens are at Harbin in Manchuria and at Nagasaki, Japan, intent on resuming work of improving the transportation facilities of the Siberian railroad and it is suggested that if they are to prosecute their pioneer work of opening up this road as a commercial and military channel of importance they must have some protection as their experience already has demonstrated. If armed guards are sent along, the expedition might test the temper of the local population along the Siberian railroad. Nothing has been heard from Ambassador Francis for two weeks. He last reported from Vologda. The state department has no apprehension for his safety.

There is a report that the American consulate at Moscow practically the only agency thru which the state department is holding any communication with the Bolshevik government is even worse as no word has been received from that quarter since June 18. It is believed that the Germans have cut off the consulate's dispatches, if the Bolshevik government ever permitted them to start from Moscow. The still lacking official confirmation of the reports of the assassination of the German ambassador at Moscow the other day here have accepted the report as accurate and are speculating in the probable effect of this tragedy.

Generally the idea seems to be it will be beneficial to the allies as tending to hasten the crisis in the relations between Russia and Germany.

Blame Gen. Savinkoff.

London, July 8.—German newspapers are pointing to General Savinkoff, who was war minister in the Kerensky cabinet as the man behind the Von Mirbach plot which is being gradually developed by the Teuton press into a great anti-German movement backed by all those men whom German has found to be hindering in her plan of aggression in Russia. A German telegram circulated by the Wolff News Bureau of Berlin says:

"Savinkoff is considered to be responsible for the deed. He is, moreover said to be closely connected with the Czech-Slovak and social revolutionary movements. His whereabouts is unknown."

Congress has annulled the charter of the "German-American Alliance." There is no room for hypocrites all in the United States today. You are either for us or against us.

We have had six—the war of Independence, that of 1812, the Mexican fracas, the Civil War, that with Spain and the present which began April 6th, 1917. And we have not as yet lost a single one.

The United States is helping its Allies with money as well as with good and men. That is one reason of war taxes and scarcity in certain lines of necessary goods. Think of that when the impulse to grumble hits you.

The compulsory work law is getting the humble sandwich men into trouble in the United States, at least such are left of that rapidly diminishing fraternity. Recently a man dressed up to resemble a packet of chewing gum for advertising purposes was sent to jail in default of his fine. It is only fair to assume that the human packet believed he was working, hence neglected to register under the work law. Say the Monitor. The next task for the police of the big cities, or some one else, to perform is obviously to define to the bewildered citizens exactly what constitutes work.

Germany is still feeding bulletins of victory to its deluded people. Even while the Italians were capturing 45,000 of Germany's Austrian allies and driving the rest of their army across the Piave in pell mell flight Berlin announced a trench raid and capture of forty Americans in the Vosges sector. The American bulletin says two are missing but what's the use—let it go at forty—thirty-eight is but a small boche lie.—Ex.

The editor of the Bluffs Times seems to be tired of his job as postmaster. He has made a splendid offer. He says: "The editor expects shortly, or as soon as relieved at the post office to be back on the job of running his newspaper. Five years of government service has convinced him that there are a few things in the world worth running a newspaper. He accordingly has resigned, as postmaster of Bluffs went in last week with the request that it be accepted and that he be relieved at the earliest possible moment. As to who the probable candidates will be for the place is unknown as yet, but it is likely there will be several."

GUARD YOUR TONGUE.

Time after time the people of America have been warned against the pro-German element in the country and the German spies which are known to infest the nation from coast to coast. Little scraps of conversation on the streets, in the cars, and in public places may be picked up by men or women whose sympathies are with Germany, and who may pass it on until it reaches the powers in Germany, where it becomes an extreme menace to our boys over there. Censor your talk, Americans. Do not pass on items of vital information which may have come into your possession. Do not let everything you happen to know about the army of America in the presence of strangers, or in the presence of anyone who may pass it on.

Do not pass on every little bit of gossip you may hear. Everything you may say might reach the ears of a German spy. Many people believe that the German spy is a scare. Many scout the idea of enemies in our midst, but the fact remains that they are here and that we must take very precaution. Do not wait until you catch a shadow of a man in a suspicious way before notifying the authorities. Save your self the feeling of having been deceived. Information would be valuable to the authorities. Do not let the arrest of a woman when he or she is suspicious. Safety first is a great factor in the fight against the Hun here at home.

WOOD'S LAND LEASED FOR NEW RESERVOIR

DOCUMENT APPROVED AT THE COUNCIL MEETING MONDAY

Special Election Called for August 6th to Vote on Question of Return to Aldermanic Government

Officers Report At Weekly Council Session.

Two sessions of the city council were held Monday, one at the regular hour and the other at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The session in the afternoon followed a meeting of the joint committee on water. At this time a resolution was approved authorizing the mayor and clerk to sign leases to land adjacent to the proposed new reservoir. A lease for Mrs. Mary E. Woods land was approved. At the subsequent meeting of the city council this resolution was placed on record. At the morning session the most important business transacted was the reading of the ordinance providing for an election to be held August 6 on the question of a return to the aldermanic form of government.

UNION SERVICE AT CONGREGATIONAL

Rev. W. E. Collins at Union Church Service Sunday Night Gave Hopeful Thought as to Meaning of the War.

The union service of west side churches was held at the Congregational church Sunday evening instead of on the lawn because of unfavorable weather. The ministers who took part were Rev. Messrs. A. A. Todd, F. B. Madden, J. E. Langston, F. M. Dule, J. Landis and W. E. Collins. The audience joined most heartily in the singing of several hymns, this service of song proving an inspiring part of the program.

Rev. Mr. Collins preached a brief sermon, taking as his text, Rev. 21:5, "Behold I make all things new." The minister emphasized in a very forceful way the thought that old things are passing now and the world is being reborn. This change is not the result of magic or chance but because thru the Christian churches there will be found in these trying times sufficient leadership to take hold of the nations involved in war and lead them out into a new and better age. The speaker referred to America as being in the travail of a second birth because of this world upheaval.

New Unity Coming.

"As a result of this great war thru which we are passing we shall realize a new unity, but it will come as a result of the triumph of righteousness or democracy. It will mean a new world of forces, international, fraternal, respected and the preservation of our great ideals for which we are today laying down lives. The seas will be made safe highways and international laws will be binding. Emerging races will be protected and in very truth the world will be made safe for democracy. So we will find that this new world is based upon democracy for it will be a federation of nations built on the will of the people. This will make different forms but will have the same general result. A new era will come and never again will there be the extremes of wealth and poverty. This does not mean socialist or non-recognition of individual achievement, but individual adventure will no longer mean that men and women will suffer for lack of food. These and other things are coming in the new order. It is a part of the kingdom of God.

"If I were the watchman on the tower of the God of Israel tonight and there came voices out of the darkness, 'What of the night?' the answer would come without hesitation. 'The morning cometh.'"

MILITIA SEEKS DRAFT EVADERS

Little Rock, Ark., July 8.—Local authorities here tonight still were without definite information as to a reported fight in the hills near Herber Springs between alleged draft resisters and United States army soldiers, a company of the Fourth Regiment Arkansas National Guard and sheriff's posse from three counties. Latest reports were resisters were fleeing and setting fire to the woods as the smoke would conceal their movements. The posse were said to be in close pursuit.

JUSTICE COURTS.

In Squire Crum's court yesterday Thomas Barrard gave bond for $500 on warrant for his future appearance. This action was taken because of the alleged attempt to kidnap a 13 year old girl who is related to his wife. It seems that the girl had been staying at the home of Mrs. Hart and that it was suddenly decided to have her remain in the Barrard home and that unusual methods were used to bring her back. The whole trouble is not of a very serious kind and will probably be settled without any further resort to the courts.

Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cain received five letters Friday, one from each of their sons now in training. Thomas is now quite ill in the hospital.

WOOD'S LAND LEASED FOR NEW RESERVOIR

DOCUMENT APPROVED AT THE COUNCIL MEETING MONDAY

Special Election Called for August 6th to Vote on Question of Return to Aldermanic Government

Officers Report At Weekly Council Session.

Two sessions of the city council were held Monday, one at the regular hour and the other at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. The session in the afternoon followed a meeting of the joint committee on water. At this time a resolution was approved authorizing the mayor and clerk to sign leases to land adjacent to the proposed new reservoir. A lease for Mrs. Mary E. Woods land was approved. At the subsequent meeting of the city council this resolution was placed on record. At the morning session the most important business transacted was the reading of the ordinance providing for an election to be held August 6 on the question of a return to the aldermanic form of government.

Department Reports

At the morning session brief department reports were made. Mr. Vasconcellos said only one pump at the north side station was in service as some needed repairs which had been ordered weeks ago were still lacking. The commissioner also reported a considerable amount of damage done to electric light bulbs in the residence district thru the carelessness or vandalism of boys. Mr. Cox reported some sewer work in progress and mentioned the overflow condition at the corner of Anna street and South Main. It was explained by Mayor Rodgers and Public Engineer Henderson that after construction of the new pavement that a splendid inlet will carry the water directly into the brook.

Mr. Cox spoke of the matter about which he has issued a warning reminding people not to put cut grass on the street pavements, and he mentioned several instances where evidently lids of manholes had been lifted and boards, brickbats and other foreign materials dropped in.

Sewers Cause Trouble.

Commissioner Martin said that an investigation with reference to the cause of several cases of typhoid fever had been made and that no special facts had been found. He mentioned that he had been compiling for the state health department figures on death causes covering a period of years, and these records showed only comparatively small number of typhoid fever cases by comparison with pneumonia and some other diseases.

The commissioner referred to the overcrowded condition of some sewers and the complaint lodged by a number of people with reference to the brook, which they insisted needed dredging out. It was suggested that the only real remedy would be in the construction of a trunk sewer. It is, however, realized that this is a very large project and nothing can be done immediately, although the matter may have some attention.

When a trunk sewer was seriously proposed some years ago the estimated cost of construction ran from $200,000 to $250,000. On motion of Commissioner Vasconcellos the contract for furnishing mine run coal for the south pumping station was awarded to Simeon Fernandes & Son and the contract for screenings at the municipal light plant to Walton & Co.

Election August 6th

City Clerk R. L. Pyatt referred to the fact that a petition had been filed on June 25 asking for a special election on the question of abandoning the commission form of government. He accordingly presented an ordinance calling the election for Tuesday, the 6th day of August, when this question will be submitted to the voters. The ordinance was given a first reading and then laid over under the rules.

The polling places and judges were named as follows:

Wood's Lease Approved

In the afternoon the joint committee held a meeting, all the members of the citizens committee and the council present. A resolution was presented authorizing the mayor and city clerk to sign leases for land to be used in connection with the proposed new water plant. Mayor Rodgers presented to the council a lease made between Mrs. Mary E. Wood and the City of Jacksonville providing for the use of certain lands. Mrs. Wood owns and which will be overflowed when the proposed dam is built.

By this lease Mrs. Wood agrees to sell the land to the city at a valuation of $250 per acre and the city has the right instead of purchasing to pay to the owner as rental $12.50 per acre or 5 per cent of the value pushed up to $250. The lease is to run for a period of twenty years, the city thus having the option to buy the land at any time during that period. The lease has been signed by Henry J. Rodgers as mayor, R. L. Pyatt as city clerk and Mrs. Mary E. Wood as owner of the land. The signatures were attested by H. C. Cleasby as notary public. This lease has been placed on record and is practically in the form it is expected to use in acquiring property rights from other land owners.

Work Progressing

It was reported at the joint session of the committee and at the meeting of the city council that the other land owners have talked very favorably in the preliminary conversations and it is hoped and expected that before the week is over that contracts will have been drawn covering practically all of the acreage needed. The joint committee, yesterday authorized that notice be sent to Pierce & Greeley, engineers, to proceed with the detail plans and specifications for the reservoir. The stakes are now being driven at the pumping station property under direction of Public Engineer Henderson and all work in connection with the project is being pushed as rapidly as possible. As indicated, there will of course be no formal construction contracts entered upon until the necessary leases have all been acquired. The resolution placed on record together with the initial lease drawn, are of interest and are quoted herewith:

BIG WHEAT CROP AT THE KICK FARM

Mr. and Mrs. George Klick have rooms for the summer at the home of Capt. and Mrs. Vickery on Webster avenue. Mr. Klick, who purchased the Julius Strawn estate lands near Alexander some time since, has extensive operations in progress there and the demands of his time were such that he determined to remove temporarily to his home in Decatur to Jacksonville. Wheat cutting and shocking was finished on the Klick farm Monday, with the help of a large force of workers secured from Jacksonville State Hospital. Men were taken back and forth in an auto truck. There is 170 acres of wheat on the farm, so that threshing will be no small task. Two of Mr. Klick's neighbors have large wheat fields, and so a machine will be busy in that immediate neighborhood for a number of weeks.

WORLD'S RICHEST MAN CELEBRATES BIRTHDAY

John D. Rockefeller Enters Upon Eightieth Birthday—Has Every Prospect of Living to be 100 Years Old.

New York, July 8.—Probably the only individual in the world who could pay out of his own purse the total cost of the war for more than a single day is John D. Rockefeller, who today enters upon the 80th year of his journey thru life. Born at Richmond, N. Y., July 8, 1839, Mr. Rockefeller, thru his own exertions has risen from poverty to circumstances that enabled him to enter business for himself before he had attained his 20th year. At 25 he had started the Standard Oil Company on its career. At the age of 50 years he was numbered among America's millionaires and when he had reached 60 he was enabled to scatter millions among his favorite philanthropies, and still lay enough aside to keep the wolf far away from his door.

There is little room to doubt that Mr. Rockefeller begins his 80th year in possession of a fortune that exceeds that of any other man in the world, and, indeed, in the history of the world. The exact amount of the Rockefeller wealth, however, is never likely to be known until the aged head of the family renders his final accounting.

Has Vast Private Fortune.

The most authentic information on the subject was furnished by a balance sheet said to have been compiled several years ago, showing that Mr. Rockefeller's private fortune, exclusive of endowment funds and other benefactions, exceeds a billion dollars. Year after year this colossal fortune has continued to increase; so rapidly, in fact, that, with all his enormous benefactions, Mr. Rockefeller is unable to dispose of the income.

Of the enormous total nearly one-half represents Mr. Rockefeller's holding in the various Standard Oil Companies and their subsidiaries. The remainder is represented by investments in a wide range of enterprises, from railroads to dairy lunch rooms, and from steel corporations to drug stores, together with millions invested in national, State, municipal and foreign bonds and issues. Not only has he taken enormous blocks of the several Liberty bond issues, but he has also helped the Allied cause by investing heavily in the war bond issues of France and Great Britain.

Neither Mr. Rockefeller nor his son, John D. Rockefeller, Jr., is engaged actively in business. Since 1910, when their joint benefactions first began to loom large in the generosity of the world, it is estimated that the Rockefellers have given away approximately $250,000,000. The most conspicuous of the benefactions have been the General Education Board, the Rockefeller Institution for Medical Research, the University of Chicago, Rush Medical College, the Young Men's Christian Association, mission societies, the Baptist church at home and abroad, the Southern Education Fund, and various universities and colleges throughout the country.

An Interesting Question.

With the solemn assurance from his own physician that Mr. Rockefeller has every prospect of living to be 100 years old, a most interesting question presents itself as to the probable immensity of the Rockefeller fortune 20 years from now.

Twenty years from today—or, to be exact, on July 8, 1938—Mr. Rockefeller will begin his 100th year—provided, of course, that he lives to fulfill his physician's prediction.

And twenty years from now, if his millions continue to increase at the present rate, Mr. Rockefeller, on the threshold of the century mark, will be worth many billions of dollars—more than the equivalent of all the gold and silver now in circulation and in all the treasure houses and mints on earth.

If in 1939, Mr. Rockefeller's fortune has reached the total estimated and he has reached his one hundredth birthday anniversary he will be drawing interest at the rate of more than $9,000 a second. This is more than some men succeed in earning in a lifetime.

If anybody wanted to count the entire fortune, all in one-dollar bills, the task would require more than two hundred years, provided the counter kept at the job day and night, without stopping for a moment until the task was ended.

THE PRICE FOR WHEAT THRESHING

In an article yesterday referring to the organization of threshermen under general direction of the food administration and a committee of which C. T. Mackness is a member, the price of threshing wheat was erroneously given as 6 cents per bushel. The price agreed upon by the threshermen with the approval of the food administration is 5 cents per bushel. Farmers and threshermen are both asked to make note of the error.

The Merchants Association of Lafayette, Ind., has elected a committee as general secretary of organization.

Are the Packers Profiteers?

Plain Facts About the Meat Business

The Federal Trade Commission in its recent report on war profits, stated that the five large meat packers have been profiteering and that they have a monopoly of the market. These conclusions, if fair and just, are matters of serious concern not only to those engaged in the meat packing business but to every other citizen of our country.

The figures given on profits are misleading and the statement that the packers have a monopoly is unsupported by the facts. The packers mentioned in the report stand ready to prove their profits reasonable and necessary.

The meat business is one of the largest American industries. Any citizen who would familiarize himself with its details must be prepared for large totals.

The report states that the aggregate profits of four large packers were $140,000,000 for the three war years.

This sum is compared with $19,000,000 as the average annual profit for the three years before the war, making it appear that the war profit was $121,000,000 greater than the pre-war profit.

This compares a three-year profit with a one-year profit—a manifestly unfair method of comparison. It is not only misleading, but the Federal Trade Commission apparently has made a mistake in the figures themselves.

The aggregate three-year profit of $140,000,000 was earned on sales of over four and a half billion dollars. It means about three cents on each dollar of sales—or a mere fraction of a cent per pound of product. Packers' profits are a negligible factor in prices of live stock and meats. No other large business is conducted upon such small margins of profit.

Furthermore—and this is very important—only a small portion of this profit has been paid in dividends. The balance has been put back into the businesses. It had to be, as you realize when you consider the problems the packers have had to solve—and solve quickly—during these war years.

To conduct this business in war times, with higher costs and the necessity of paying two or three times the former prices for live stock, has required the use of two or three times the ordinary amount of working capital. The additional profit makes only a fair return on this, and as has been stated, the larger portion of the profits earned has been used to finance huge stocks of goods and to provide additions and improvements made necessary by the enormous demands of our army and navy and the Allies.

If you are a business man you will appreciate the significance of these facts. If you are unacquainted with business, talk this matter over with some business acquaintance—with your banker, say—and ask him to compare profits of the packing industry with those of any other large industry at the present time.

No evidence is offered by the Federal Trade Commission in support of the statement that the large packers have a monopoly. The Commission's own report shows the large number and importance of other packers.

The packers mentioned in the statement stand ready to prove to any fair minded person that they are in keen competition with each other, and that they have no power to manipulate prices. If this were not true they would not dare to make this positive statement.

Furthermore, government figures show that the five large packers mentioned in the report account for only about one-third of the meat business of the country.

They wish it were possible to interest you in the details of their business. Of how, for instance, they can sell dressed beef for less than the cost of the live animal, owing to utilization of by-products, and of the wonderful story of the methods of distribution throughout this broad land, as well as in other countries.

The five packers mentioned feel justified in co-operating with each other to the extent of together presenting this public statement.

They have been able to do a big job for your government in its time of need; they have met all war time demands promptly and completely and they are willing to trust their case to the fair mindedness of the American people with the facts before them.

SERVICE FLAG IS SUITABLY DEDICATED

Impressive Ceremonial Took Place at Congregational Church Sunday Morning—People All Took Part in Service.

Sunday morning witnessed a beautiful ceremony of service flag dedication at the Congregational church in this city. Miss Emma Daniels had presented to the church a beautiful service flag with stars representing the members of the church or congregation who had entered the service and the dedication ceremonies took place at the time mentioned. The pulpit and platform were most beautifully decorated with flowers and foliage, the work of Misses Georgia Fairbank and Miss Daniels and in front hung the flag draped and ready for presentation.

After suitable preliminary remarks by the pastor, Rev. W. E. Collins, Miss Daniels said: "Members and friends of the Congregational church, it gives me great joy to ask you to receive this flag to be used for the recognition of our members who are giving their lives to the great cause of humanity. The white of the flag typifies the purity of our ideals, the blue the loyalty to that which is best and the red the blood which shall flow in order that righteousness shall not perish from the earth."

On behalf of the church Dr. Carl E. Black responded: "As chairman of the board of trustees I accept this flag and assure you it is fully appreciated by the recipients and will be placed among the archives of the church as one of its choicest treasures. The flag represents the bravery and devotion of the young men who have gone from us to take a part in a great conflict. They are sacrificing all; let us see to it that we are equally ready to do our part to sustain them and the flag of our beloved land. There is something each one may do; none are too small or too feeble to accomplish something for the general good. The life of our beloved land is at stake, and as we look on the stars in this flag let us be inspired to deeds of self-denial, of generous giving, of all that in us lies to accomplish the great victory we all so ardently desire.

"This is a holy war and one in which the church most especially has a part. It is a war for the preservation of all that is dear to the human heart; freedom from autocracy and cruelty; from the domination of a relentless power which knows no dictates of conscience or human pity; of integrity or justice; only seeking by might to crush the weak; murder the innocent; ravage homes and firesides; destroy all that is sacred and dear that its despotic power may triumph and make vassals of the rest of mankind. This is the power we oppose and may heaven bless the brave defenders represented by the stars on this flag. In the name of the church I accept it and thank the donor."

Lieut. Fred Stewart was present and was presented to the congregation and received with applause. Mrs. Gregory then sang in fine manner, "America, My Country."

The following program came next: Minister—Having once dedicated this flag, why do we today engage in this special service of dedication?

UNION SERVICES HELD AT CONCORD

Rev. C. G. Central Delivered Sermon—More Names Added to Service Flag—Other Concord News

Concord, July 8.—On Sunday evening at 8:15, the first number of the series of Union services was held at the M. E. church, with a good attendance considering the roads and weather. Rev. Thomas Simons presided; Rev. C. A. Fairchild offered prayer and read the scripture lesson from 1st John 4th Chapter. Good music was furnished by the audience, led by a large choir. A select song "Beautiful Starry Flag," by Sammie Blimling and James Rexroat, Jr., brought forth well merited applause. Before the main address was given, Mr. Simons read the names of eight young men and one nurse and their stars were pinned on the service flag by relatives or near friends. This makes 18 stars on the service flag. The names as given are as follows: Jay R. Cooper; N. C. Caldwell; Howard Yeck; Floyd Davis; Glen Eagle; Claude Noe; Glen E. Standley; Charles H. Standley; Miss Ina Blimling, R. N.

The prayer following the reading of names was by Rev. Mr. Simons. The audience sang "America," which completed the part of the program. Minister C. G. Central was then introduced as the speaker of the evening. His theme was "Service and Sacrifice." He spoke along patriotic lines, using Bible quotations which made a very interesting talk. The only criticism offered was that it was too short. Brother Central is a man so chock full of patriotism that he is just in his element when he has a patriotic address to make. P. R. Leonard made a good four minute talk.

It would be worth "bushels of wheat" to hear him speak to the boys in camp on the battle front. The next number of the union meetings will be held next Sunday evening at 8:15, at the Christian church, and one of the pastors will make the address. These meetings will continue during July and August. It is likely that outside speakers will be secured part of the time to increase the interest. This is a move in the right direction and will meet the approval of all Concord church people.

Next Saturday evening at 8:30 at the Christian church, Miss Mamie Kennedy, of Jacksonville, will be present and will read "The Corner Stone." The admission will be 25 cents and the entire proceeds will go to the Red Cross. This reading is said to be highly interesting and is for a good cause and deserves liberal patronage.

The "Hen Drive" which had to be postponed from the time set, will be made on Wednesday of this week. Get them up.

One of the heaviest rains in "many moons" began on Sunday night, and it seemed that the windows from above were all open for some time. A few hail stones rattled against our windows and gaves us unpleasant reminders of the disastrous hail storm which began about the same time in the night on June 7th, 1915. The wind did more damage this time by blowing down the early corn, and taking cap sheaves off the wheat and oat shocks. Much of the corn will be again. Threshing will be delayed.

LIBRARY EXHIBIT CLOSED An effort was made to continue thru this week the exhibit of ancient furniture, historic papers and other articles at the public library but it was found impossible to retain the articles for such a long period. The exhibit was a notable one and many availed themselves of the opportunity of viewing it. Miss Lydia M. Barrette, the librarian, had charge of the exhibit and much credit is due to her for the success of the undertaking, as well as to those who so willingly aided by furnishing the various articles on exhibit.

The idea of a smoke screen as an aid to naval operations is said to have been conceived by Sir Francis Drake as far back as 1588, whose aim it was to spoil the aim of the gunners at Fort St. Julian by letting four smoke ships drift down upon the fort, while he slipped past with his main fleet, and forced a landing at Lisbon.

PAPER SHORTAGE A CAUSE OF WORRY

Results in Strict Conservation Rules Newspapers Must Follow—Letter Issued by War Industries Board.

The general shortage of paper and the difficulties which newspaper publishers and others dependent upon paper supply are meeting are emphasized by a letter which the war industries board at Washington has just sent to newspaper publishers. In this letter certain rules are laid down for the saving of newspaper which all publishers of daily and weekly newspapers are required to follow. The rules as laid down are as follows:

To All Newspaper Publishers, Washington, D. C. July 5, 1918

On account of the shortage of materials the question of the supply of paper is becoming acute and the use of paper must be economized to the greatest possible extent.

It is necessary that all newspapers which publish a daily and weekly edition put the following preliminary economies into effect July 15, 1918.

Discontinue the acceptance of the return of unsold copies.

Discontinue the use of all samples or free promotion copies.

Discontinue giving copies to anybody except for office-working copies or where required by statute law in the case of official advertising.

Discontinue free copies to advertisers.

Discontinue the arbitrary forcing of copies on news dealers.

Discontinue the payment of salaries or commission to agents, dealers, or newsboys for the purpose of securing the equivalent of return privileges.

Discontinue all free exchanges.

WARM SENTIMENT FOR AMERICA EXPRESSED

Messages Received by President Wilson from President Poincaré, King Albert, King Emmanuel and Others.

Washington, July 8. — Warm sentiments for America and appreciation of its efforts in the war for world freedom are expressed in Independence Day messages to President Wilson from President Poincaré of France, King Albert of Belgium, King Emmanuel of Italy, King Alexander of Greece, President Moncal of Cuba and Premier Venizelos of Greece.

The message with the president's replies were made public today at the state department.

President Poincaré said that the French and American people in communion of thought will remember the fights of old that won liberty for America and hope for the forthcoming victories which will secure for the world a just peace. President Wilson in replying said it was fitting that the anniversary of American independence day should witness the fraternity of free peoples in the cause of national self determination.

King Albert thanked the American people for their efforts to ameliorate the suffering of his stricken people and expressed his admiration for the bravery of the American troops on the battle fields of France.

King Emmanuel said in entering the world war the American people "have nobly kept faith that supreme ideal" which was claimed with their independence while the King of Greece said America's participation in the war "constitutes all the more valuable a factor in the struggle as it has for its sole aim the defense of the rights of oppressed people."

President's Poincaré's message said:

"The government of the republic, at one with all the national representatives and the whole country, ordained that tomorrow the Independence Day of the United States shall also be a French holiday. Paris will give your glorious name to one of its handsomest avenues and acclaim to the valiant American soldiers. In every town large and small, these manifestations of fraternity will be echoed. Two peoples in communion of thought will one and all remember the rights of old that won liberty for America and hope for the forthcoming victories which will secure for the world a just and fruitful peace based on the law of nations and fortified by the approval of human conscience."

Mr. President, cordially extend to you on the eve of great day of union and fellowship, the wishes and felicitations of France for the United States and yourself."

President Wilson replied: "With a full heart I welcome your message of congratulation on the American day of independence. It is fitting that this glorious anniversary should witness the fraternity of free peoples in the cause of national self determination. The happy fruit and the ancient association of your lands in the common cause of liberty today is fittingly seen in the union of countries in the splendid task of upholding their rights in the face of barbaric aggression. My countrymen are alike gratified and filled with pride at the tribute of brotherly affection which the French people are offering them so generously at every point of intercourse. I most hopefully reciprocate your prayerful wish that this may all presage the ultimate triumph of the rights of France and America, not only but also the rights of humanity."

DISCOVER PROTECTIVE COATING FOR CONCRETE

Washington, July 8. — Discovery of a new protective coating which is expected to make concrete ships as durable as steel was announced today by the shipping board. "Engineers studying concrete construction are becoming more and more enthusiastic over the future of concrete ships," said R. G. Wig, chief of the concrete ship division. "From our comprehensive tests at sea, we are assured that such vessels will last a minimum of several years without any protection. Application of well known protective coatings makes certain an extended life of several years additional and with the future developments of protective means which we have discovered, I believe, the concrete ship can be made as permanent as steel if not more so."

OBJECTS TO SUPPLYING AUSTRIA

Amsterdam, July 8. — In the reichstag on Saturday Deputy Matzinger, a member of the center party, protested against any further supplies of grain being sent to Austria. Deputy Wils, a Socialist declared that a further reduction in rations was unbearable. Many people he said had no idea of the misery prevailing among the masses. Unemployment was increasing in Berlin and the wages were insufficient to procure the necessary food. To terminate the war, the speaker added would be a greater economic gain than would be the conquest of a province.

INDICT TEN WAITERS

Chicago, July 8. — Ten men were indicted today as a result of the investigation of charges that waiters administered "Mickey Finn" powder to non-tipping patrons of Chicago's hotels and restaurants. According to the testimony of chemists the powder contained drugs which made diners, who were given them, sick.

RESUME CONSIDERATION OF PROHIBITION LAW

Measure Providing for Absolute Prohibition During War is Reported to Senate.

Washington, July 8. — Legislation providing for practically absolute prohibition during the war, was reported to the senate today after the agriculture committee had agreed to drastic changes in the Norris amendment to the $11,000,000 emergency agricultural appropriation bill by which the sale of distilled spirits, beer and wine except for export would be prohibited after next January 1, and the manufacture of beer and wine stopped after November 1.

Consideration of the uncontested committee amendments to the emergency measure which began last Saturday night was resumed today and day leaders had hoped to reach the prohibition amendment, but prolonged consideration of the telegraph, telephone resolution prevented. Prohibition leaders hope this section would be taken up tomorrow and are confident of victory on the final roll call. Strong opposition is expected in view of opposition by shipping board officials to taking beer away from ship yard workmen.

As originally proposed the Norris amendment would never have prohibited the sale of distilled liquors and the manufacture of wine except for export after June 30 and the manufacture of beer three months after the agriculture bill became a law. The sale of wine, however, would not have been stopped.

Under the amendment as reported today the removal of distilled spirits held in bond would be prohibited after January 1, except under regulations prescribed by the commissioner of internal revenue with the approval of the secretary of the treasury.

The amendment as modified by the committee later was reported to the senate by Chairman Gore as a substitute for the Norris amendment.

It follows: "That after December 31, 1918, until the conclusion of the present war for the purpose of conserving man-power of the nation and to increase efficiency in the production of arms, munitions, ships, food and clothing for the army and navy, it shall be unlawful to sell for beverage purposes any distilled spirits and during said time no distilled spirits held in bond shall be removed therefrom for beverage purposes except for export."

After November 1, 1918, until the conclusion of the present war no grain, cereal, fruit or other food products shall be used in the manufacture or production of beer, wine or other intoxicating malt or vinous liquors for beverage purposes.

"After December 31, 1918, until the conclusion of the present war, no beer, wine or other intoxicating malt or vinous liquor shall be sold for beverage purposes except for export. The commissioner of internal revenue is hereby authorized and directed to prescribe rules and regulations subject to the approval of the secretary of the treasury in regard to the removal of distilled spirits held in bond after December 31, 1918, for other than beverage purposes also in regard to the sale and distribution of wine for sacramental, medicinal and other non-beverage uses. After the approval of this act no distilled malt, vinous or other intoxicating liquors shall be imported into the United States."

"Any person who violates any of the foregoing provisions shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined a fine not exceeding $1,000 or by imprisonment not exceeding one year or both."

AMERICAN SPIRIT AT HOME MUST WIN WAR

Congressman Foss Declared Men, Munitions and Money Not The Only Strength Needed—Senatorial Candidate Heards in Address Here Monday.

Congressman George Edmund Foss, candidate for the Republican nomination for U. S. senator is making the race on his record, so Congressman Foss told the audience which assembled last night at the county court house to hear him make a stirring war time address.

Incidentally it may be stated that the record mentioned is won while Foss has served for twenty two years in congress and has served on important committees. At the meeting last night the Jacksonville drum corps played several selections and then Charles B. Graff, chairman of the Morgan County Republican Central committee introduced Congressman Foss. The speaker was not new to Jacksonville, as he was here a number of years ago and made an able address in Central park.

The congressman said last night that the time was when no man had aspirations for the senatorship unless he could point to a record of public service. In his own case he had no hesitation in asking that the calcium light of investigation be turned upon his many terms in congress where he has served for the most part as a member of the naval affairs committee. Those who know about that record give Congressman Foss credit for aiding thru the years in building up the navy.

Records Disloyalty Charge.

The speaker voiced his objection to the suggestion made in some quarters that any candidate who opposed one or two of those previously in the field would be accused of disloyalty. The congressman said that loyalty is the outward manifestation of the inward spirit and does not consist in waving the flag or in cringing oneself in that emblem. He said that his own loyalty would stand investigation thru the pre-war period and this would not apply to a certain great Chicago paper that is now opposing his candidacy.

Turning from his personal record in public affairs, Congressman Foss gave a masterly review of the war situation, emphasizing especially the fact that war requires men, munitions and money but that even these three great forces will fail helpless unless backed up by the people at home. "Back of these millions of men at the front and our splendid equipment there must be the strength of the people and their indomitable will to win. We must breathe that one thought and feel that one sentiment if victory is to be ours. We need a revival of the real American spirit, broad in its interest and enthusiasm as is this great country. We welcome all people to this land but there is not a foot of soil here for anyone who does not love the flag."

Napoleon's End

"Napoleon in his day traveled through Europe and had all countries at his feet, but he died a prisoner on a lonely island. I believe that in the judgment of an all-wise God that history will repeat itself in this present great conflict. With the real American spirit dominating there can be but one end to this conflict."

DEATHS

Spaulding.

John Spaulding the thirteen year old son of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Spaulding residing about seven miles southeast of Murrayville died at Our Savior's hospital at 7 o'clock Monday evening. He was taken ill with an acute attack of appendicitis Friday and was taken immediately to the hospital. He is survived by his parents and four brothers, Eldon, now in the service; Harold, Leo and Charles and three sisters, Marie, Lois and Winifred. The lad was well liked by those who knew him well and his untimely death has brought sadness to many hearts. No funeral arrangements have as yet been made.

Fisher.

The death of Robert Fisher occurred at his home, 770 South Fayette street, Monday morning at 7 o'clock. The deceased, who was a veteran of the Civil war, had been in failing health for a number of years. Deceased was born at Fincham, England, Dec. 5, 1836, and came to this country in early days. For a number of years he resided on a farm northwest of Jacksonville but recently had been a citizen of Jacksonville. The deceased was a member of Trinity church and lived an exemplary life. He is survived by his wife and the following children: Mrs. Eliza Stewart, St. Louis; Mrs. Grace Black, Mason City; Mrs. Rose Fisher, Jacksonville; Mrs. Mary Mallin, Jacksonville; Emma L. Fisher, Jacksonville; Robert W. Fisher, Waukegan, Iowa and Albert Fisher, Jacksonville.

The arrangements for the funeral have not yet been made.

S. M. Husey is one of the older farmers of the county who returned temporarily to the farm in order to help out in these days when workers are not numerous. Mr. Husey is past eighty years of age but he found that he could shock wheat just as rapidly as some men far younger in years.

THE PRICE FOR THRESHING

A previous statement with reference to agreed price for threshing wheat was in error. The threshermen of the county at a conference held several weeks ago at the Avers National bank building agreed upon the price of 3 cents per bushel for threshing wheat. This is quite in line with the action taken in other counties where working conditions are practically the same as here.

PARK BOARD HELD WEEKLY SESSION

No Oiling of Roadways Until Government's Permit is Given—Park Fund Less Than Estimated.

The park board met last evening and transacted ordinary business. All approved bills were ordered paid. Will of Hofmann Floral company was deferred as the committee was not ready to report and asked for more time; granted.

Member Hollinger, special chief of park police for the Fourth of July reported that four special policemen had been employed in addition to Supt. Schaefer to protect the grass in central park. That force and a wire had accomplished the work very well and the grass had been injured but little. The wire would be left until after the Barnum-Bailey show day when more special policemen would be needed.

Supt. Schaefer reported regarding reservoir park that the grass was heavy and it would require regular scythe mowing. It was decided to mow the level part but let the water commissioner care for the weeds on the side of the distributing reservoir as that was no part of the business of the park board.

No Road Oiling Now. The chair reported that the government had held up Mr. Cocking for the present in the use of road oil but Mr. Cocking hoped to get permission to use what he had on hand. Meanwhile no oiling could be done until the matter with the government was settled. It was the sense of the board to do what was right in the matter of oiling the roads but the frequent rains render that unnecessary for the present.

The chair reported an unaccountable shortage in the anticipated receipts from the city this year. The treasurer had informed him that the gross would amount to be some $7,600, whereas it should be $8,800. The mayor had estimated the latter sum from the fact that the assessed valuation of the city is $4,400,000 and two mills on this would yield $8,800.

The secretary and the chair reported securing a new pump for central park and the action was approved.

Member Gomes reported ordering letter boards for three parks: Nichols, Duncan and first ward; part are in place. He also reported ordering material to renew the shoot the chutes.

Supt. Schaefer reported the impossibility of keeping the drives in Nichols park wholly free from ruts unless vehicles are kept out after each rain. He had hauled cinders and filled all the ruts and depressions and heavy rains had run in while the ground was soft after rains and made the places worse than before. It was the sense of the board that it would be impracticable to keep autos and carriages out so much of the time and if rain came so frequently as it had this season some unsightly places in the drives are simply unavoidable.

The secretary was instructed to have signs made warning people to keep hands off the screen around the monkey cages. Strange that this should be necessary and yet many people place their children right on the ledge around the cage and monkeys are monkeys. Adjourned.

TO MY FRIENDS. I have taken a position as mechanic with the J. F. Claus Motor Company, the home of the Oakland. Lee Wolke.

Talk of Repairs. J. K. C. Pierson was present by request and made a careful explanation of the possible manner of heating and ventilating the structure. He showed how the fan system would be operated and the gravity system; passing the heat over the radiators, admitting it to the room and supplying suitable heated ventilating shafts. He also discussed to some extent the matter of preparing the rooms and apartments for the purpose of a high school. One great lack was the fact that there was no possibility of a suitable audience or assembly room. Another member said he had consulted a capable builder who said it would take $30,000 to reconstruct the academy hall so that it could be used for a school building, and then it would only be a make shift.

Then too the question was raised regarding the willingness of the college trustees to sell the property and possibly the present investigation might be somewhat precious. The college trustees had given no figures on the property and had not expressed themselves at all. Another suggestion was that the seventh and eighth grades be sent back to the several ward school buildings for another year and the David Prince building used for the high school only.

Two Schemes in One. The recent arrangement was well enough for a temporary makeshift but would be a great hardship for another year. The hours were so early and so long that it was difficult to manage the attendance and in cold weather would be still worse and it was imperative that something be done. There are seven teachers and principal in the David Prince building. That would make two for each building and while it would not be as desirable as to have them all in one building, it would in the estimation of many, be better than the double barreled arrangement made since the fire.

No definite action was taken in the matter though there was a great deal of talk and friendly discussion in the matter and it was deemed best to wait for the coming of the adviser. That had been somewhat delayed by the inability of the president to secure a survey and photograph of the grounds intended for the new building. He had found it impossible to get the men to do the work but hoped to have it done soon and would do his best.

The matter of the boiler house was brought up. One suggestion was to let the boilers stay where they are for the winter, cover them, erect a temporary steel stack and heat the David Prince building with them the coming year. There is great danger that the proposed new boiler house and smoke stack may not be completed in time and if not the board will be much censured as there was much discomfort last spring from imperfect heating.

On the other hand it was deemed inadvisable to do this as it would be throwing away $2,000 at least and subjecting the neighborhood to the same smoke nuisance they had been suffering the past years. One opinion was that the new boiler house should be erected as soon as possible and work should begin at once and the board should decide on a site; either buy the Wood property or not buy it and get busy and do something. It was thought best to wait for the adviser who will soon be here.
